No. 117.—The Board of Commissioners for Hindu Religious Endowments has brought to the notice of Government that the temple of Sri Lakshminarayana Perumal at Kumbakonam, Anaimalai, Krishnagiri taluk, Tanjore district, the average annual gross income of which is less than Rs. 100 and which is thus outside the scope of the Madras Hindu Religious Endowments Act, 1925 (Act II of 1925), is in a ruined condition, that the temple is not properly performed in the temple and that the trustees have directed the income to the conduct of puja in Pahari Temple which is associated with the endowment and to other purposes. It is also reported that if the trustees belonging to the endowment are improved and issued out for pecuniary motives they will yield an income of more than Rs. 100. In these circumstances the Board recommends that all the provisions of the Hindu Religious Endowments Act, 1925 (II of 1925), except section 65 (1) relating to contributions to the Board may be applied to the temple in question, so that steps may be taken to set matters right and to improve the condition of the temple. Before proceeding further in the matter, Government desire to ascertain whether the trustees or any worshippers at the temple have any objection to steps against the extension of the Act as proposed. If no valid objection is received within a month from the date of the publication of the notification in the District Gazette, they will proceed to pass orders on the Board's recommendation.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

COTTON CROP OF 1939-40—SECOND REPORT.

[On an average of the five years ending 1935-36, the area under cotton in the Madras Presidency has represented 24 per cent of the total area under crops in India.]

The area under cotton up to the end of September 1939 is estimated at 524,900 acres against 521,500 acres on the corresponding date of last year. There has been a decrease of about 25 per cent.

1. The area in the South and the Central Districts relates partly to last year's crop and partly to the new crop, the portions of which have not matured. There has been an increase in the area under last year's crop in these districts owing to seasonable hot weather rains. There has also been an increase in the area under the new crop owing to good rains in September.

The area in the Deccan has fallen from 528,000 acres to 277,500 acres owing to the intensity of the season. Sowings are in progress and the full in the area is expected to be more than made up by the view of the next forecast report in December. There has been an increase in the area under "Cottonseed".

2. Alupari or early crop in the Deccan has been affected by drought.

Germination of the crop has been generally satisfactory in most districts.

4. Figures by districts are given in the statement appended.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill further to amend the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for certain purposes, was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 16th September 1923:—

We, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee, to which the Bill further to amend the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for certain purposes was referred, have considered the Bill and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto.

2. The Bill, as introduced, was drafted on the principle that all excess contributions and interest above the limit which is to be exempt from the payment of tax should be accumulated year by year and taxed as a lump sum at the end of the employee's service. We consider that, even in the limited extent of the excess contributions, this principle would be inconvenient in practice and would be inequitable in those cases where the receipt of large lump sums might render an employee, otherwise exempt, liable to pay income-tax, or reduce his rate of income-tax, or even render him liable to taxation. We prefer a system whereby the excess contributions to an employee's individual account shall be deemed to be income received by him and, subject to the exemption granted, taxed each year at the rate applicable. This principle, we consider, will be simpler to work in practice and it will have the desirable effect of allowing the whole of the employee's pension fund to be paid over to him at the end of his service without delay or deduction.

3. This change of accumulation and taxation method, while not varying the substance of the Bill, or interfering with the extent of the exemption granted, has involved substantial special amendments. We have had to amend the whole of clauses 22E, 22F, 24D, 25B, 25C and 25E, and have replaced them by new clauses 22E to 22F, but in doing so we have adhered strictly to the general principles underlying the Bill as introduced. We need only make special mention of clause 22E dealing with the transfer of existing funds to funds which are newly reorganised. We have not the duty on employers of making up fund accounts of existing funds, and of showing to them the portion of each employee's balance which is to be transferred to the reorganised fund. Subject to the reservation that no tax already paid on an employee's own contributions will be refunded, the portion is transferred with interest retrospectively exemption from tax up to the same limit as will be given to the employee's future account. As regards any excess above and above the exempted portion which may be accumulated, in order to avoid inconvenience in individual cases arising from the payment of a large amount of income-tax on such a lump sum, we have provided that an employee may withdraw the amount of the excess tax payable by him for that year from his balance in the reorganised pension fund.

4. In addition, we have made several drafting amendments, minor amendments of substance, and consequential amendments.

The amendments in clause 2 and in old clause 2, now clause 4, and the revision of old clause 6 are consequential on our re-draft of clause 22E to 22F.

Clause 22A.—We have altered the definition of "employee" so as to include bodies such as Chambers of Commerce which are associations of associations and not associations of individuals; and also in order to include individuals engaged in a business, profession or vocation.

We have altered the definition of "employee" so as to include pensioned and domestic servants.

Clause 22B.—We have added a new sub-clause providing for an appeal against an order of the Commissioners refusing to recognise a pension fund.

Clause 22G, sub-clause (f).—

Sub-clause (f).—We consider it to be in the interest of the employee to require that the fund shall be vested in two or more trustees.

*Definition (g).—*The category of husband, sometimes in this condition is incomplete, and it would involve some risk to attempt to draft a complete category. We have, therefore, omitted the category entirely in order that the stress may cover all cases of husband papers.

*Clause 23.—old clause 22K.—*In clause (1) of sub-section (2), we have deleted the word "parties" before the word "company", as in our opinion there may be cases of shareholders in public companies just as well as in private companies who should properly come within the scope of the clause. We have been assured that it is the intention of Government that the rule so far framed under this provision will apply only to employees who are shareholders holding a substantial portion of the shares of a company.

4. We have carried out the necessary re-numbering and re-lettering.

5. The Bill was published in English in the Gazette of India of the 1st September 1929.

7. For reasons given in paragraphs 2 and 3 above, we think that the Bill has not been so altered as to require republication and we recommend that it be passed as now amended.

Any portion of the balance in the credit of an employee in the existing fund which is not transferred to the completed fund shall be included from the account of the completed fund and shall be liable to taxation and report in accordance with the provisions of this Act other than this Chapter.

(3) Subject to such rules as the Central Board of Revenue may make in this behalf, the Income-tax Officer shall make a calculation of the aggregate of all sums comprised in a transferred balance which would have been liable to taxation if this Chapter had been in force from the date of the liquidation of the fund, without regard to any tax which may have been paid on any such sum, and such aggregate (if any) shall be deemed to be income received by the employee in the year in which the recognition of the fund takes effect, and shall be included in the employee's total income for that year, and for the purpose of assessment, the remainder of the transferred balance shall be disregarded, but no other exemption or relief, by way of refund or otherwise, shall be granted in respect of any sum comprised in such transferred balance.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in section (3) of sub-section (2) of section 55C, an employee, as before is liable to pay the amount of his income on his total income as determined under sub-section (5), shall be included in addition from the balance in his credit in the completed provident fund a sum not exceeding the difference between such amount and the amount to which he would have been entitled if the income from the fund had not been included in his total income.

(8) When an employee participating in such fund is paid the accumulated balance due to him therefrom, any portion of such balance as represents his share in the amount so transferred to the trustee (without addition of interest, and exclusive of the employee's contributions and interest thereon) shall be deemed to be an expenditure by the employee within the meaning of clause (vi) of sub-section (2) of section 10, incurred in the year in which the accumulated balance due to the employee is paid.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of India on the 18th September 1920:—

C or S. BILL No. 3 of 1920.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Territorial Funds Act, 1919, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Territorial Funds Act, 1919, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title

1. This Act may be called the Indian Territorial Funds (Amendment) Act, 1920.

XXXX of 1920.

2. After sub-section (2) of section 5 of the Indian Territorial Force Act, 1923, the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—
“(3) The Governor-General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, declare in respect of any State in India, the Provinces in which persons residing in that State may be recruited, and persons so recruited shall thereupon be deemed for all purposes of this Act to reside in that Province.”

Amendment
of section 5,
Act XLVIII
of 1923

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 5 of the Indian Territorial Force Act, 1923, as it stands at present, permits the enrolment in the Indian Territorial Force of only of those subjects of Indian States who are for the time being resident in a province of British India. It does not permit the enrolment of subjects of Indian States who continue to reside in the territories of their respective States.

A comparatively small number of Indian State subjects who reside in Indian States have already been recruited in certain units of the Indian Territorial Force under a misinterpretation of the law; and the Bill is intended to legalize the position of those men.

The 28th August 1929.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of State on the 10th September 1929:—

C. or S. BILL No. 9 of 1929.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Cotton Cess Act, 1923, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Cotton Cess Act, 1923, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Indian Cotton Cess (Amendment) Bill, 1929.

2. In section 4 of the Indian Cotton Cess Act, 1923 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act),—

(a) in clause (i) for the words “the Agricultural Adviser to the Government of India,” the words “the Vice-Chairman of the Imperial Council of Agricultural Research” shall be substituted; and

(b) after clause (i) the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

(iv) the Expert Adviser to the Imperial Council of Agricultural Research in agricultural matters; and

3. In sub-section (2) of section 5 of the said Act, for the words “The Agricultural Adviser to the Government of India,” the words “The Vice-Chairman of the Imperial Council of Agricultural Research” shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In paragraph 28 of their report, the Royal Commission on Agriculture recommended that on the constitution of the Council of Agricultural Research, the post of Agricultural Adviser to the Government of India should be abolished and that the Chairmanship of the India Cotton Cess Committee, which is now held by the Agricultural Adviser as office under section 5 of the India Cotton Cess Act, 1923 (XIV of 1923), should be taken over by the Chairman of the Research Council. The Imperial Council of Agricultural Research has now been established (act, under the scheme recommended by the Government of India, the advisory duties of the Agricultural Adviser will be taken over by the Vice-Chairman and his two expert colleagues. It is, therefore, proposed that the words "the Vice-Chairman of the Imperial Council of Agricultural Research" should be substituted for the words "the Agricultural Adviser to the Government of India" occurring in sections 4 (B) and 5 (E) of the India Cotton Cess Act, 1923.

It is also considered desirable that advantage should be taken of this opportunity to provide for the appointment of the Expert Adviser to the Imperial Council of Agricultural Research in agricultural matters as an ex-officio member of the India Cotton Cess Committee under section 4 of the Act. The India Cotton Cess Committee have been marshalled and have accepted both these proposals.

FAHLE-HUSARY.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of State on the 26th September 1929:—

C. or S. BILL No. 4 of 1929.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Registration Act, 1908, for a certain purpose.

ENCL. 1929. Whereas it is expedient further to amend the Indian Registration Act, 1908, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; it is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Indian Registration (Amendment) Act, 1929. Encl. 1929.

ENCL. 1929. 2. Section 26 of the Indian Registration Act, 1908, is hereby repealed. Encl. 1929.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 26 of the Indian Registration Act, 1908, directs that every Sub-Registrar shall send periodically to the District Registrar a copy of all entries made by him in Indent Nos. I, II and III and that every Registrar receiving such copy shall file it in his office. The preparation of duplicate indentures has been found to be wasteful of time and labour and serves no useful purpose. The Lord Government and Administrators are agreeable to the deletion of section 26 of the Act and the Bill provides for this.

Sole,
The 26th September 1929.

C. W. GWINNE.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of State on the 16th September 1929:—

C. or S. BILL No. 5 of 1929.

A Bill further to amend the Burma Salt Act, 1917, for various purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Burma Salt Act, 1917, for the purposes hereinafter appearing, it is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Burma Salt (Amendment) Act, 1929.
2. In section 5 of the Burma Salt Act, 1917,—
 - (a) is clause (a), the word "other," in both places where it occurs, shall be omitted;
 - (b) is clause (b), for the words "letter and brackets" clause (b), the word "letter and brackets" clause (a) shall be substituted; and
 - (c) is clause (b), after the words "enforced as then by" the words "or under" shall be inserted.

Amendment of section 5, Burma Salt Act of 1917.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 6 of the Burma Salt Act, 1917 (Burma Act II of 1917), as now in force, empowers the Central Board of Revenue to delegate the power of appointing officers to the Commissioner of Salt Revenue, Burma, but does not allow the Commissioner further to delegate the power of appointment to the Collector or to Superintendents. It is desirable that there should be such delegation in respect of subordinate ranks, and it is proposed to achieve this object by amending section 6 (a) of the Burma Salt Act.

3. It is proposed to utilize this opportunity also to carry out two small drafting amendments of a purely formal nature.

Burma,
The 25th April 1929.

E. BURDON.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of State on the 16th September 1929:—

C. or S. BILL No. 6 of 1929.

A Bill further to amend the Guardians and Wards Act, 1920, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Guardians and Wards Act, 1920, for the purposes hereinafter appearing, it is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Guardians and Wards (Amendment) Act, 1929.
2. After section 34 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1920 (section 34 hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"34A. When accounts are exhibited by a guardian of the property of a ward in pursuance of a requisition made under clause (c) of section 34 or otherwise, the Court may appoint a person to audit the accounts, and may direct that remuneration for the work be paid out of the income of the property."

Power to audit accounts for auditing accounts.

2. In subsection (2) of section 10 of the said Act, after clause (f) the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—
 "(f) as to the credit of accounts under section 34B, the class of persons who should be appointed to audit accounts, and the order of remuneration to be granted to them;"

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Companies and Wards Act, 1926, contains no specific provision for the auditing of the accounts of officers' salaries and the meeting of the cost of the audit out of the salaries. The audit of such accounts tends to be left in the hands of Subordinate Clerks or District Clerks or to industrial officers, who have rarely the time or training to apply anything in the nature of a thorough test. With a view to checking the possibility of defalcation an adequate audit of these accounts is desirable. Accordingly, the present Bill has been framed for the purpose of giving express power to the Court to award remuneration for auditing accounts of the income of the property. Clause 3 empowers the High Court to make rules as to the audit of accounts, the class of persons who should be appointed to audit them and the order of remuneration to be granted to the auditors.

C. W. GUYMER,

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of State on the 16th September 1928:—

G. or R. BILL No. 728, 1928.

A Bill further to amend the President Funds Act, 1925, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the President Funds Act, 1925, for the purposes hereinafter appearing: It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

Amendment of section 3, Act No. 112 of 1925

1. This Act may be called the President Funds (Amendment) Act, 1928.

2. In section 2 of the President Funds Act, 1925 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act):—

(a) in clause (a), the words "or the payment of subscriptions or grants in respect of a family pension fund," shall be inserted; and

(b) the words "modified in respect of any such subscription or deposit" shall be omitted;

(c) in clause (b), for the words "or otherwise in respect of a subscription to, or deposit in," the words "a subscription to, or deposit or balance at the credit of an individual account in," shall be substituted; and

(d) in clause (c), the words "modified in respect of such subscriptions or deposits" shall be omitted.

Amendment of section 4 of section 4 of Act No. 112 of 1925.

3. Section 4 of the said Act shall be amended as follows:—

(a) The Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, direct that the provisions of this Act shall apply to any President Fund established for the benefit of the employees of any of the institutions specified in the Schedule, or of any group of such institutions, and, on the making of such declaration, this Act shall apply accordingly, as if each President Fund were a Government President Fund and the authority having custody of the Fund were the Government.

Provided that section 4 shall apply as if the authority making the contribution referred to in that section were the Government.

(5) The Governor-General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, add to the Schedule the name of any public institution as may deem fit, and any such addition shall have effect as if it had been made by this Act.

6. The following Schedule shall be added to the said Act, Section of Schedule to Act XIII of 1918.

THE SCHEDULE.

LIST OF INSTITUTIONS.

[In sub-section (5) of section 4.]

1. The Father Institute of India, Kowli.
2. The Calcutta Improvement Tribunal.
3. A Court of Wards.
4. The Indian Central Cotton Committee.
5. The Trustees for the European Hospital for mental diseases at Ranchi.
6. The National Association for supplying female medical aid by women to the women of India.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Bill is designed—

(1) to legalize withdrawals from a provident fund for the payment of subscriptions or premia to a family pension fund. The Act already provides that withdrawals may be made for the payment of premia or policies of life insurance, and this extension of the same principle is considered both desirable and logical;

(2) to delete from the definition of "compulsory deposit", "contributions" and "President Fund" words which have usually been interpreted to mean that contributions to a compulsory provident fund should bear some relation to the subscriber's subscriptions apart from that of being in addition to them: that, for instance, they should be credited at the same time as subscriptions or bear a particular proportion to them. No restriction is found for such a restriction, and it is considered expedient to remove it;

(3) to extend to the provident funds of public institutions whose activities are closely connected with those of Government, provided inter alia that Government are definitely in a position to exercise a necessary measure of control, the benefit of being capable of being brought under the protection of the Act. It is considered that the employees of such institutions have an equitable claim to be placed on the same footing as employees of municipalities and the like whose provident funds already enjoy this benefit under section 4 of the Act.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of State on the 16th September 1926:—

G. no. 8. BILL No. 8 of 1926.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Succession Act, 1925, for certain purposes.

Whereas it is expedient further to amend the Indian Succession XXXIX of Act, 1925, for the purposes hereinafter appearing, It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Indian Succession (Amendment) Act, 1926.

2. After clause (E) of section 2 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925 XXXIX of Act, 1925, the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(H) 'District Judge' means the Judge of a principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction";

3. (a) Sub-section (1) of section 57 of the said Act shall be re-enacted as section 57, and after clause (H) and before the proviso the word "and" and the following clause shall be added, namely:—

"(a) to all wills and testaments made by any Hindu, Buddhist, Sikh, or Jain as or after the first day of January 1927, to which these provisions are not applied by clauses (c) and (d)";

(b) Sub-section (2) of section 57 of the said Act shall be omitted.

4. In sub-section (4) of section 225 of the said Act for the word "does" the word "shows" and for the words and figures "sub-section (1) of section 57" the words, letters and figures "clause (a) and (b) of section 57" shall be substituted.

5. The enactments specified in the Schedule are hereby repealed.

THE SCHEDULE.

ENACTMENTS REPEALED.

(See section 5.)

Year.	No.	Short title.
1925	.. XXXVII	.. The Indian Succession (Amendment) Act, 1925.
1926	.. 271	.. The Indian Succession (Second Amendment) Act, 1926.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Indian Succession Act, 1925 (X of 1925), contained in section 5 a definition of the expression "District Judge" which was wide enough to include and was always held to include a Judge of the High Court exercising probate jurisdiction on the Original Side. The Consolidation Act of 1925 (XXXIX of 1925) confined the definition with the result that the expression "District Judge" cannot be held to include a High Court in the exercise of its ordinary or extraordinary probate jurisdiction in view of the definition contained in the General Clauses Act, 1897. As the Indian Succession Act of 1925 now stands, numerous powers are vested therein and given to District Judges but not given to the High Court on its Original Side. This effect of the curtailment of the definition of "District Judge" from the Act of 1925 was apparently not intended and it is proposed to restore it. Clause 2 of the Bill gives effect to this proposal.

5. The remaining clauses are intended to supply another omission. Under sub section (2) of section 57 of the Act of 1925, which was inserted by Act XXXVII of 1925, all wills and testaments made by any Hindu, Buddhist, Sikh or Jaina on or after the 1st January, 1927, must be made in the form and substance of the form set out in Schedule III of the Act. It is considered that the provisions of the other sections of the Indian Succession Act set out in Schedule III should be made applicable to the class of wills dealt with in section 57 (2), were the failure to apply those provisions to those wills may lead to the inference that different principles govern them, and even if it is decided that this class of wills should be in writing, signed and attested, there is no reason for differentiating it from the wills falling under clauses (a) and (b) of section 57 (2).

The necessary amendments are provided in clauses 3 and 4 of the Bill.

3. In consequence of these amendments Act XXXVII of 1925 and Act XXI of 1925 will no longer be necessary, and it is proposed to repeal them.

Report of the Select Committee on the Madras Department of General India Bill, with the Bill as amended by the Committee.—Tamil, Telugu and English.

Bill to be introduced in the Council of the Governor of Fort St. George for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations.

Under rule 20 of the Madras Legislative Council Rules, the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons, is published for general information :—

BILL No. 17 OF 1929.

A Bill further to amend the Madras Village Courts Act, 1858.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Madras Village Courts Act, 1858, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; it is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. This Act shall be called the Madras Village Courts (Amendment) Act, 1929.

2. Unless otherwise expressly stated the words section and sub-section shall mean section and sub-section respectively of the Madras Village Courts Act, 1838, as amended by Act II of 1930.

3. In section 5 for the definitions 'Village Court' and 'Village Munsif' respectively, the following shall be substituted. 'Village Court' means the Panchayat Court established in pursuance of the provisions of this Act. 'Village Munsif' means the headman of the village who shall act as the Registrar of the Court established in pursuance of the provisions of this Act.

4. In section 7 the words 'in villages where there are no Panchayat Courts' occurring at the beginning shall be omitted.

5. For section 9, the following section shall be substituted:—

"(1) For every village the Collector shall prepare and maintain a list of persons (which shall not be less than 5 per cent of the total population of the village) residing in the village and qualified to sit as members of the Panchayat subject to any rules the Governor in Council may make in this behalf. Such list shall be published in the District Gazette and shall be hung in the village court house;

(2) When any suit is instituted before the village court it shall be the duty of the village munsif within a week of the institution of such a suit to require the plaintiff as well as the defendant or the complainant and the accused to choose one, three or five members by common consent; if they cannot agree, he shall call upon them to choose two members for each side out of the list of panchayadars maintained in the village courts. The four members so nominated shall unanimously choose the fifth from out of the list. If the parties or the panchayadars cannot agree within two clear days from the date of requisition or do not attend within that time the village munsif (after due notice to both parties or the panchayadars as the case may be) must lot and declare the result of such lots. The names so declared shall be the panchayadar or the panchayadars for purposes of that particular institution.

(3) When any person nominated by parties, or by Panchayadars or by drawing lots declines or is unable to set, the parties or the Panchayatdars shall be required to make a fresh nomination or a fresh lot shall be cast as the case may be.

(4) The village munsif shall summon the panchayat as selected aforesaid.

(5) The village munsif shall be ex-officio Chairman of every panchayat and shall regulate the procedure and issue all summonses, notices and the like in his own name and shall record the decrees of the Panchayat for the Panchayatdars in their name and get their signatures or thumb impressions affixed to such decrees; when he is absent the Panchayatdars may elect one of their own number as the Chairman as per rules prescribed.

(6) If the members of the Panchayat cannot agree, the opinion of the majority shall prevail. Where for any unavoidable reasons, to be recorded in writing by the Chairman, one of the Panchayatdars is absent or where the village munsif himself has been nominated a Panchayatdar either by nomination by the parties or by the Panchayatdars or by casting lots he shall have a vote in recording opinion.

(7) No person summoned under this section to serve on a Panchayat shall be bound to sit for more than three days in any month provided that every such person shall be bound to attend the trial of any case which has been commenced before him until its completion.

(8) whoever being duly summoned under this section to serve on a Panchayat without reasonable excuse declines or omits to do so, shall on conviction before a magistrate be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20."

6. For section 16, sub-section (1), substitute the following:—

"No suit by or against a village munsif or in which he is personally interested or connected with or arising out of such suit shall be instituted in the village court of which he is the munsif; every such suit or proceeding may be instituted in the village court of any village immediately adjoining."

In sub-section (2) for the word "is" substitute the word "becomes" and for the words "during the hearing of such suits, etc." substitute the words "a substitute Panchayatdar shall be freshly nominated as per provisions of this Act to try the suit."

7. In section 21, omit the words 'and try the suit himself as if it had been instituted in this Court'.

8. In section 25 after the word 'presented' and the words 'and the Panchayatdar has been duly constituted'.

9. In section 26 after the words 'his signature' add 'or his thumb impression'.

10. In section 46 for paragraph 2 substitute the following:—

"The decree shall be dated on the day on which it is passed and signed by the Panchayatdar who, when they are not able to write, affix their thumb impressions and by the village munshi as the Registrar of the Village Court. Such Panchayatdars as are in disagreement of the decree may indicate their disagreement opposite to their signatures. A copy of the decree shall then be delivered to each party in the prescribed manner."

11. In section 47 for the words 'twelve per cent' substitute the words 'nine per cent'.

12. In section 48 for the words 'by the village court' substitute the words 'by the village munshi who is the Registrar and executive of the village court'.

13. In section 59 paragraph 2 for the words 'the court shall grant a receipt' substitute the words 'the village munshi shall grant a receipt'.

14. In section 76 for the words 'empower a Panchayat Court' substitute the words 'empower a village court of any village'.

15. In section 78 for (8) substitute—

"Prescribe qualifications and disqualifications of members to be included in the panel of Panchayatdars."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Administration of Justice in villages has to be much more simplified and removed from complexity of local political life. Because to enable courts have to be much more restricted not by more complexity but by an added incentive to it by a broad-based moral arrangement for dispensation of fair justice. The immemorial tradition of this country is the Panchayat—not however the Panchayat arrived at by voting by majority. The Panchayat was in essence mutually and tacitly agreed arbitrations. Elections may be inevitable and necessary for legislation and administration. For the dispensation of justice the best means is arbitration—fair and local. Today on account of the change of advantage of a system that subject to a large number of flaws and formalities which often help to bring everything under a cloud the law favoured in a system not ready for arbitration. Therefore, if simplification and purification of the system of judicial trials are aimed at, arbitration selected by the state as the very source of litigation, is the best method. The multiplicity of courts—the Panchayat Court, the Village Court, the Village Munsif's Court, the Panch Court, and the Jurisdiction of the District Munsif have all introduced a confusion that is an advantage to the simple system. This amendment aims at giving the simplest and simplest form of trial of cases in villages—the trial by jury will be held and as properly chosen as possible under the circumstances.
